XVIII. That every tavern, inn, and hotel, in which spirituous or fermented liquors or drinks are ordinarily sold, shall be closed during the days appointed for polling in the elections of Members of Parliament, in the same manner as it should be on Sunday; and no spirituous or fermented liquors or drink shall be sold or given during said period, under a penalty of one hundred dollars against the keeper thereof if he neglects to close it; and under a like penalty if he sells or gives any spirituous or fermented liquors or drinks aforesaid.

XIX. 1st. To take the Declaration and Qualification of Office required by law, and to enter into Bonds, to be taken by the Clerk, in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, with one good surety in the sum of One Hundred Dollars, conditioned for the efficient discharge of his office.

2d. He shall, in the month of February in each year, visit the premises of all applicants whose applications have been sanctioned by the Council of the Municipality, at a meeting held for that purpose on the second Monday in February of each year, and after carefully examining said premises, shall, on finding the necessary accommodations, grant a Certificate addressed to the Clerk to that effect. Also, after visiting the premises of all applicants, shall send a report on the state of said premises to the Council, stating to whom he has granted Certificates, and to whom he has not, with the reason therefor, and any information or suggestions that may be useful for regulating the sale by retail of Intoxicating Liquors.

3. It shall be the duty of the Inspector, on receiving notice from any member of the Council, or other person, or on his being aware that any person or persons are selling liquor without License, or guilty of keeping a disorderly house, if he deems the evidence sufficient, he shall promptly make a complaint to the Reeve or some Justice of the Peace in the Municipality; or, if he deems evidence not sufficient, he shall forthwith visit the premises of the party or parties complained of, and, on his finding that they are selling intoxicating liquors without a License, or guilty of the violation of sections five and sixteen of this By-law, he shall then forthwith complain as above, which complaint may be made in the name of the Corporation of Raleigh—in which case the whole of the penalty shall go to the Treasurer of the Municipality.

4th. Any Inspector of Licenses may in his discretion (but subject to any By-laws of the Municipality) endorse on any License permission to the person holding the License to sell the liquors mentioned in his License at any place out his house, or to remove from the house licensed to any other house to be described in the endorsement, and situate within the Municipality. And such permission shall authorize the holder thereof to sell such Liquors in the house mentioned in the endorsement, during the unexpired portion of the term for which the License was granted, and upon the same terms and conditions. And any Bond or security which such holder may have given for any purpose relative to such License, shall apply to the house or place to which such removal is authorized.

5th. Any person interfering with the Inspector in the discharge of the duties of his office, shall, on conviction thereof, be liable to a penalty of Ten Dollars, with costs.

6th. On the Inspector refusing or neglecting to fulfill the duties as required by this By-law, or who issues a Certificate contrary to the provisions of this By-law, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall for each offence pay a fine of not less than Forty Dollars nor more than One Hundred Dollars; or he may be imprisoned for a period not exceeding thirty days; or, in the discretion of the Court, may be both fined and imprisoned.

VICTUALLING HOUSES.

Any person being desirous of keeping a Victualling House, it shall be the duty of the Inspector to visit such house, to ascertain if such person has the necessary accommodations, which shall be the same as those required for a Tavern; if he finds such party duly qualified, and having the requisite accommodations, he shall grant a Certificate, and on said Certificate, together with the Treasurer's receipt that the sum of Five Dollars has been paid, the Clerk shall grant a License, receiving from the Licensee the sum of One Dollar. And any person opening such a house without first obtaining a License, shall be liable to a penalty of Ten Dollars, recoverable in the usual manner before a Justice or Justices of the Peace.
